Camp Highlights and Focus

Participants will have the opportunity to learn and implement their softball fundamentals in a fun and competitive environment. Instruction will focus on softball drills to help improve each participant's skill level.

Players will have the opportunity to compete in scrimmages and apply their softball skills in friendly game settings.

Camp Director -

Barbara Jordan (Northridge '87) is in her fifth season as head coach for the Matador softball team. She was a member of CSUN's NCAA Division II National Championship teams in '84, '85 and '87 and was named a three-time All American in '85, '86 and '87. Jordan was inducted into the Cal State Northridge Hall of Fame in 1995.

In international competition Jordan was selected eight times as a member of the U.S. National Team. She has earned 5 international gold medals including the Pan American and World Softball Championships. Jordan was an alternate on the 1996 USA Olympic Softball Gold Medal winning team.

This past spring Jordan was named as an assistant coach on the USA Softball Junior National Team Staff. This team is scheduled to compete at the Junior World Championships in summer 2007. She has also been named to serve as an assistant coach at the USA Softball National Team selection camps this summer.

CAMP STAFF - All sessions will be instructed by current and former CSUN players.
